St. Paul’s Episcopal School, located across from Lake Merritt in Oakland, enrolls 380 students from diverse backgrounds in Kindergarten-Grade 8. St. Paul’s provides an education that is intellectually challenging, culturally pluralistic, and morally and spiritually enriching. Caring, committed faculty members, in partnership with parents, serve as role models, mentors, and guides. St. Paul’s has an academically talented and ethnically diverse student body and seeks the same in its faculty.

St. Paul’s seeks to fill the Resident Teacher position, for the 2020 - 2021 academic year, with an experienced, dynamic individual who:

• has attained a BA degree.
• has experience working with elementary age children and are interested in pursuing a career in teaching.
• demonstrates warmth toward children and a good sense of humor.
• has excellent communication skills with both children and adults.
• values collegiality with other teachers and administrators.
• wants to learn and is willing to accept direction and guidance.
• is able to provide meaningful support for the lead classroom teacher.
• takes initiative and pays attention to detail.
• shares ideas and insights about teaching and learning.

Students are supported by specialists in Physical Education, music, Spanish, and art.

The Resident Teacher works under the supervision of a Lead Teacher.

This is a paid, full-time position working Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.
